

Do you need your message to reach the Foothills audience? Is a classified or display ad just not what you're looking for?

Consider THE TOWN CRIER

The DesertLeaf's paid calendar section

You can announce your meeting, community event, or fundraiser in a 20-word announcement for just $25.00! We've had so many requests for a calendar section that we decided to create a new venue for publicity chairs and event coordinators. Our experience and readership tell us that our paper is thoroughly read and saved for reference. The Town Crier will live up to its name and make sure your message is heard.

Send your announcement and prepayment to:
